To maximize the success for each Pathfinder, Club Directors, Instructors must intentionally:

- Inspire and motivate Pathfinders.
  - Emphasize quality, not quantity, of learning.
  - Establish a base of knowledge that can be built on in following levels.
  - Allocate time to practice new concepts and skills.
  - Aim for understanding rather than memorization.
  - Consider developmental and individual abilities of each Pathfinder.
  - Employ effective and flexible strategies to aid learning.
  - Use concrete and meaningful activities.

- 10% of what we hear

- 15% of what we see

- 20% of what we both see and hear

- 40% of what we discuss

- 80% of what we experience directly or practice doing

WHAT IS A PATHFINDER CLUB?

- The Pathfinder Club is an environment where individuals from different backgrounds with various abilities and personalities come together.
- As a Director/Counselor/Instructor, an effective teacher requires the implementation of creative and innovative teaching strategies in order to meet the pathfinder individual needs and learning styles.

8 LEARNING STYLES

COMBINATION.

VERBAL

PATHFINDERS

- Learn information through reading, writing, listening and speaking.
- They love word games, puns and rhymes.

INSTRUCTORS

- Use verbal teaching and activities in their experiences.
- Ask them to assist members of their class.
- Role playing can be a great opportunity to understand new concepts and ideas.

VISUAL LEARNING

PATHFINDER

- Visual learners understand best when they see information.
- They like diagrams, flowcharts and graphs.
- They find handouts helpful, where they can write down what they hear or see as it is being described.
- They like to read, draw and do craft and express themselves through creativity.

INSTRUCTOR

Use technology such as PowerPoint, videos and photos to present information such as PowerPoint, videos and photos.

Organize information well with headings and pictures.

Let the pathfinder be creative and use their imagination.

Use handouts.

MUSICAL / AUDITORY

PATHFINDERS

- Auditory learners thrive on having background music, and often need to hum or drum their fingers while studying or working on a project.
- Benefit from reading a text out loud or using a tape recorder.
- Verbal lectures, discussions and talking things through.

INSTRUCTORS

- Hold discussions and debates.
- Speak clearly so your pathfinders can hear you.
- Allow pathfinders to use background music (with headset) while working.
- Create jingles or rhymes to help teach information.

PHYSICAL / KINESTHETIC

---

PATHFINDERS

- Hands on in order to understand the process and retain information.
- This is a common learning style as many people prefer to learn while doing.

INSTRUCTORS

- Use physical exercises and provide hands-on experiences.
- Exercises where they are standing and walking are very effective.
- Enhances teamwork within the Pathfinder group.
- Get them to interact with physical objects or solve puzzles.

LOGICAL / MATHEMATICAL

PATHFINDERS

- They like to classify and categorize information and solve problems with numbers.
- Good at analyzing cause and effect relationships.

INSTRUCTORS

- Provide the class with problem-solving tasks.
- Challenge them to work things out for themselves.
- Ask them to interpret abstract visual information.
- Include critical thinking exercises.

SOCIAL

PATHFINDERS

- Performs best when they're able to relate to others and work in group situations.
- They need to be able to bounce off ideas and interact with each other.
- They're much better at reading emotions and facial expressions and are often extroverts.

INSTRUCTOR

- Create situations where they can work in groups.
- Let them role play to demonstrate processes.
- Allow them to discuss and share stories.

SOLITARY

---

PATHFINDERS

- Learn and work best on their own.
- This type of learner tends to be more introverted and prefers to learn processes and digest information on their own time, rather than with a group of people.
- They are very independent.

INSTRUCTOR

- Ask questions so you know what they're thinking and how they're feeling.
- Provide individual problem-solving exercises.
- Explain why the lesson material is important.
- Give them ways to track their progress.

WHAT TYPE OF LEARNER IS SHE?
